SPORTS OF ALL KINDS

Fine Exhibition of Racing Witnessed by a Small Crowd at Driving Park.

WINNERS OF VARIOUS RACES

Little Agnes Went Under the Wire First in the 2.35 Class and Blue in the 2.40 Race—Programme that Has Been Mapped Out by the Excelsior Athletic Club for the Winter.
Notes About Sports.

The races of the Gentlemen's Driving club yesterday afternoon were featured by the good racing and slim attendance. Nearly all the heats developed a contest of some sort. J. L.
Crawford and Walter Jermyn officiated as starters and Frank Merrill and J. Frank Siegel as judges and timekeepers.

The first heat of the 3.00 class was one of the prettiest and most changeable trailing exhibitions seen at the meetings. Mr. Hazzard's Frank H. had the lead by a good length after making the first turn, and in the back stretch had Beauty J for company until on the last turn, when John Harris' J. H., an advanced starter, driven by Harry Reynolds, made the trio, all neck and neck.
Frank H. made one of his fatal breaks before entering the stretch and Beauty J also lost her stride. J. H. won the heat by two open lengths. In the second heat Net, a fast but uncontrollable animal, was kept well in hand by Mr.
Goodwin until in the last stretch, when she broke and lost the heat and race to J. H.

GRAYFOOT'S HARD WORK.
T. L. S. was the pole horse in the 2.50 class race, and was never headed in the first heat, though from the head of the stretch Grayfoot gave him a bruising race to the wire. The latter might have won the heat if he had been more favored at the start. The two had it out in the next heat, which Starter Crawford declared a dead heat.
Grayfoot had been running after passing the quarter pole and T. L. S. broke a length away from the wire, which they reached nose and nose. The third heat was a pretty contest with T. L. S.
Grayfoot, but in the stretch, when named in a bunch until on the last turn, when T. L. S. went into the air and Grayfoot pulled in the heat with Browny a short length away. Grayfoot captured the last heat from Browny by only a scant half-length.

Blue never had a competitor for first position in the first heat of the 2.40 race though the stripe for second place offered plenty of excitement. Dr. Hill's John was second around the first turn and was passed by Johnny in the stretch. Maud L. joined the trio on the last turn but broke with Johnny.
John kept in the stretch and got second place with two lengths to spare and three lengths behind Blue. The second heat did not develop a contest and Blue won easily.

Little Agnes had no difficulty in taking the first heat of the last race though Abigail led until the head of the stretch. Mr. Goodman and Little Agnes under a pull until near the quarter pole which was made in 35 flat. Abigail was under the whip from the head of the stretch but the gray mare won the heat quite handsly. Little Agnes pulled in the last heat without urging making the quarter in 35 flat and half 1 1/2, the three-quarters in 1.49 1/2 and the mile in 2.28 flat.

TOURNAMENT IN NOVEMBER.

Will Be Held at Music Hall by Excelsior Athletic Club.

The programme of winter sport planned by the Excelsior Athletic club, that of holding monthly tournaments at the club house, has been abandoned. The expense would have been heavy and there was no assurance of sufficient patronage to meet the cost to the club.

The executive committee of the club settled with the manager of Music hall yesterday to hold a tournament on the evenings of Nov. 20 and 21. The annual outdoor tournament of the Amateur Athletic association will be held on Saturday in Philadelphia.

After the tournament a business meeting of delegates from every club in the association will be held. At this meeting each club will report the dates arranged for its tournaments. They will be recorded by the secretary and invitations sent out to all clubs to compete as they may see fit.

PLANS FOR THE TOURNAMENT.
The Excelsior tournament will bring on from New York, Philadelphia and Trenton, no less than a dozen of the cream amateur boxers of the association to meet the men of the Excelsior club.

Saturday's meeting at Philadelphia was to take up the case of John Walsh who fought with James Judge in this city at the tournament held in April at the Academy. Judge beat Walsh and was advanced to second place for honors in the light weight amateur championship. An amateur named Early was the champion, but he was accused of having entered into a professional fight, which would debar him from amateur honors. The case will come up, anyhow to determine Walsh's right to the championship because Judge had disqualified himself by his professional fight with Jerome Quigley, at Philadelphia, last month.

Judge is now at Camden, N. J., in charge of Professor O'Neill, who taught the Excelsiors last winter. He is waiting to arrange for a fight with some one in his class. Timothy Quinn leaves with President McNally at 3.45 this afternoon. He will go to the outdoor tournament of the Atlantic association in the name of the Excelsiors and enter with their colors. He will compete in the one-mile run, running high jump and pole vault. N. H.

Roepp, of Philadelphia, will be asked to referee the Excelsior tournament.

DONAHUE ALMOST BLIND.
P. J. Donahue's days as referee in the amateur ring are gone. He is almost totally blind. One day in August he was out hunting wild pigeons. One of the shells exploded and fearfully burned and lacerated his face. His eyesight was so impaired that since then he is almost blind.

The boys of the Excelsior club are in hard training for the event under the instruction of Captain P. J. Durkin and are getting into fine form.

Captain Durkin, if it is possible, will be persuaded to enter the tournament. He would prove a strong drawing card. His fighting weight is 130 pounds, and he had a recent offer from several substantial backers to back him for $2,000 against any man of his weight in the professional arena. He refused and prefers to remain an amateur and if he can be persuaded to enter the tournament those who see him box may confidently expect to be treated to a superb exhibition.

There will be no wrestling in the tournament.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

(Under this heading short letters of interest will be published, if the Editor is satisfied with the writer's name. The Editor will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.)

MR. CARTER'S CLOSING LETTER

EDITOR OF THE TRIBUNE:
SIR:—My legal advisor has requested me to confine myself to an explanation of the "libelous" article in yesterday's TRIBUNE, as far as my relation to Dudley Duck is concerned. I copy a letter from this famous composer written me while at home in Olean, attending a sick father:

"Dear Mr. Carter:
I have just received your registered letter with enclosure. I am sincerely sorry that you are forced to stop just now; and I am not speaking from merely the security of my standpoint, although it upsets my time rather badly, on account of pupils refused in order to accommodate you with the choice hours of the afternoon. However, your excuse is ample and I think myself you ought to be on hand. I trust you will recommence at the earliest possible opportunity. You have requested me to write like to make my mark upon you. When you are able to begin let me know a little in advance (a week or two) that I may arrange time. Very truly yours, D. E.
Brooklyn, Nov. 29, '87."

Who told a falsehood?
William H. Shuman, the great pianist, gave a concert at Olean, my home, Sept.
14, 1891, and in an interview published in Olean Herald next day said: "I am glad you have mentioned Mr. Carter. Nothing gives me greater pleasure than an opportunity to express my opinion of that young man. I believe George Carter has before him some of the greatest possibilities as an American musician. He has already developed some of the best qualities of artistic musicianship and skill in the treatment of both the piano and organ of any young man I have had the pleasure of teaching, and I expect great things of him. I am very proud to call him my pupil. I think he has a manly and amiable disposition which ought to endear him to his friends and make him liked as much as he is admired. Carter is one of the calibre I should be glad to have associated with me in Chicago, and it may be that he will be at some time in the future."

A word with the Welsh people in conclusion: With all the talent, musical ability and determination you possess, are you satisfied with the progress of your people?
I claim that with proper instruction soldiers' music you must have become famous. Who is your greatest friend—the one who feeds upon you without producing the results desired or the one who sees the best in you and tries to people in Scranton and knows that with proper instruction the beautiful voices might have held every position in Scotland.

Trusting you will give this careful consideration uninfluenced by those using you to further their own ends, and with best wishes,
With respect,
GEORGE B. CARTER.

GOOD WORK BY WOMEN

Considering Plans for Extending the Influence of Mission Work.

CONVENTION AT GREEN RIDGE

Held by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Churches of This District—Many Interesting Papers Read—Talks on the Work Being Done in Mission Fields—Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of Methodist Episcopal church of the Scranton district was held yesterday in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church at Monsey avenue and Delaware street, Green Ridge. The meeting was opened by devotional exercises led by Mrs. M. S. Hard, of Kingston, who read that portion of the gospel of St. Mark referring to the anointing of Christ by Mary, after which Rev. Mr.
Horns and Mrs. Sweet Gardner led in prayer.

Mrs. W. W. Ives in greeting the delegates to the church and convention said that the aim of the convention was to increase the effectiveness of the different auxiliaries. Women are apt to underestimate their ability, although they have been in the lead of every cause for any good purpose.

She was followed by Rev. A. F. Chaffee, who welcomed the delegates to the church and convention and said that the means of creating new enthusiasm that will extend into all the branches of church work. In the absence of Mrs. J. B. Sumner and Mrs. G. C. Lyman the responses were made by Mrs.
M. S. Hard, Mrs. Lee, of Plains, and Mrs. Parsons, of Waverly.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.
The report of the recording secretary and treasury were read and adopted.

Mrs. Lee, the corresponding secretary, reported having sent out 103 blank postal cards, all of which have not yet been returned, fifty-four reports and having organized an auxiliary of thirteen members at Waverly.

Delegates from the Wyoming, Kingston, West, Princeton, Wilkes-Barre, Plains, Yates, Avoca, the Elm Park church, Simpson, Memorial, Providence and Ashbury church auxiliaries gave very encouraging reports. Wyoming has the banner auxiliary, for although only three years old it has now forty-two members and raised and distributed $540 for missionary purposes.

Mrs. W. H. Pearce told of her visit to Miss Hall's school in Rome. She said that the scholars are from all the different classes, some of them being able to pay for their tuition while others are not. The school is of the same grade as the government schools.

A large number of the pupils are taught the English language, as most of the business houses need at least one who is conversant in it because of the large number of tourists.

The president then appointed Mrs.
Parsons, Mrs. Ives and Mrs. Fuls as a committee on resolutions; Mrs.
Ives and Miss Wadham a committee for nominating the officers for the ensuing year, and Mrs. Furey, Mrs.
Smith and Mrs. Lea to prepare the programme of the next meeting, and Mrs.
Horns and Mrs. Chaffee to send greetings to the convention of the Honesdale district, which was in session at the time in Danmore. Mrs. C. W. Green was introduced to the delegates just before adjournment. The ladies of the church had prepared a luncheon, which was served to about seventy people in the Sunday school rooms in the basement.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION.
The afternoon session was opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs.
C. D. Simpson, of the Elm Park church, Mrs. C. W. Green, late of Japan, leading in prayer. Mrs. F. H.
Parsons' paper on "Do I Help, or Hinder?" was most interesting. Mrs.
Barton T. Jayne sang "Let the Glad Sheaves Arise Singing," after which Mrs.
C. W. Green, who has but recently returned from the work after spending over eight years in the mission fields in Japan, spoke on the work that was done. She showed the audience a letter written in English by a member of a class of girls that she had taught for some time. It was written on a roll of paper about twenty-five feet long and six inches wide. Mrs. W. C. MacDonald, assisted by Miss Bernice Conger, then recited "The Watchman on the Tower."

Miss Lizzie Raub gave a very concise account of the "School at Lucknow," saying that it was organized by Miss Colburn with six girls and in two months had increased to twenty-five, and at the beginning of this year it contained over a hundred girls and a college had also been started.

The report of the committee on resolutions was then read, in which the convention thanked the ladies of the Ashbury church for their luncheon, heartily welcome and all who took part.

The nominating committee reported in favor of keeping the same officers for another year, with the addition of Mrs. G. T. Price as vice president.

The officers are: President, M. S. Hard, vice president, G. T. Price; recording secretary, Mrs. Dr. Meisell; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. N. Lea; treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Loomis. The report was accepted and the officers elected by acclamation. The convention was closed by Rev. A. F. Chaffee pronouncing the benediction.
